A staple in the New York region and an emerging program on the national stage, the Manhattanville College Athletic Department continues to bolster its reputation as a program on the rise in all areas: athletic achievement, academic success and overall participation.

More than 300 Valiant student-athletes (nearly 20 percent of the student body) took part in intercollegiate athletics during the 2009-10 school year showcasing the continued and rapid growth of athletics at Manhattanville. Following the successful integration of the men’s and women’s indoor and outdoor track teams in 2008-09, the program has expanded to 21 intercollegiate teams – including seven new teams that have been established or re-established since 2007 alone.

And teams at Manhattanville do not just compete, they win. Seven different programs earned conference regular-season or tournament championships in 2009-10 – a total bettered by only 13 Division III schools – and two Valiant teams (baseball and men’s golf) appeared in the NCAA Tournament. Fifteen of 21 Valiant teams earned berths in their respective conference championships last year, including conference championships for the baseball, men’s golf and men’s hockey programs. Three Manhattanville teams (men’s hockey, women’s hockey and women’s soccer) also received national rankings over the course of the year, the most in a single school year since 2004-05.

On an individual level, many Valiant student-athletes were honored in 2009-10 as well. A program-record four Valiants – A.J. Mikkelsen and Mickey Lang (men’s hockey), Katie Little (women’s hockey) and Dan Fiorito (baseball) received All-American accolades, while an incredible six players were named conference Player of the Year. Manhattanville athletes also earned two conference Rookie of the Year awards and a school-record 49 All-Conference honors. In the last 10 years, at least 30 former Valiants have gone on to play professionally either domestically or overseas.

But at Manhattanville, athletics is only one part of becoming a well-rounded student-athlete. In the classroom, Valiant athletes consistently achieve higher grade-point averages than the student body as a whole, as evidenced by the 3.120 Athletic Department GPA for the Spring 2010 semester. All but four Valiant teams recorded a team GPA of 3.000 or higher for the spring term, while a program-record 105 student-athletes were named Academic All-Conference honorees.

Community service also continues to play a vital role in the student-athlete experience at Manhattanville, as each team performs hundreds of community service hours each year. In addition to active involvement with many local sports teams and youth organizations both on and off campus, Valiant teams sponsor events such as the women’s basketball “Pink Zone” night and the women’s hockey “Think Pink” event to promote cancer awareness. As a result of these and other efforts, the school was the recipient of two Jostens/NADIIAA Community Service Awards in 2008-09, one of only 13 institutions honored and the only school to receive two awards. The service aspect of the Manhattanville student-athlete experience plays a large role in helping Valiant athletes fulfill the college’s mission of educating ethically and socially responsible leaders for the global community.

GoValiants.TV

Launched in November 2009, GoValiants.TV is back for its first full season in 2010-11 and, as the online home for Manhattanville Athletics video streaming, is the only place you need to watch home games for all of your favorite Valiant teams, including men’s soccer! Partnering with Pack Network, GoValiants.TV features one of the most ambitious and wide-ranging video broadcasting platforms in Division III and puts Manhattanville on par with some of the top Division I programs in the country. With a GoValiants.TV All-Access pass, subscribers can watch every broadcasted event for every Manhattanville team for a full year. The pass also gives the subscriber access to the complete archives section as well as premium content such as full-screen game view, exclusive interviews and other web-only content. Only want to watch one game? GoValiants.TV also offers a pay-per-game rate as well.
Didier Orellana enters his sixth season at the helm of the Manhattanville men’s soccer program in 2010, continuing his task of making the Valiants a contender both in the Freedom Conference and in the region.

Orellana led Manhattanville to one of the best seasons in program history in 2009, as he was named Freedom Conference Coach of the Year after posting a 13-5-1 record and earning the Freedom Conference regular-season title with only the second undefeated conference slate in school history. The 13 wins tied for second on the school’s single-season list, including a streak of eight consecutive shutouts midway through the year.

The honors poured in for the Valiants after the season, led by Orellana’s Coach of the Year award and Keston George’s Freedom Player of the Year honor. In all, five Valiants were named to the All-Conference teams and two – George and Emil Sjöberg – also earned NSCAA All-Region honors, marking just the third time in program history that the program produced multiple All-Region selections in a single season. Senior Keith Simons also earned NSCAA All-Region Scholar-Athlete honors following the season as well.

In five seasons as head coach at Manhattanville, Orellana has developed 14 All-Conference performers and four All-Region players, while his student-athletes have also won eight conference Player of the Week awards during his tenure. A tireless recruiter, Orellana has brought in student-athletes from eight different countries in the last five seasons.

In 2008, Orellana guided the Valiants to an 11-8-1 record, tied for the fourth-most wins in a single season in school history. The Valiants also won five of their last six Freedom Conference matches to finish at 5-3-0 overall and earn the third seed in the Freedom Conference Tournament despite being picked seventh out of nine teams in the conference preseason poll. Under Orellana’s guidance, George was named the Freedom Conference Rookie of the Year and three Valiants were honored with spots on the All-Conference teams, including George and Sjöberg.

In 2007, the Valiants finished with a 6-11-1 mark under Orellana, including a 2-4-1 conference mark in the school’s first season with the Freedom Conference. After the season, his squad was honored by the NSCAA with a Team Academic Award for having a team GPA above 3.00, a mark that the Valiants easily surpassed with their team GPA of 3.26.

In 2006, Orellana led Manhattanville to the best start in eight years, bursting out of the gates with a 4-0-1 mark. Included in that stretch was a 2-0 win over Oneonta State, a program one year removed fromcompeting as a Division I team. Despite a difficult end to the season, the 2006 team still excelled in the classroom, posting a 3.23 cumulative GPA.

The 11th coach in the history of the program, Orellana came to the Valiants only days before the start of the 2005 season but still managed to lead his team to a berth in the Skyline Conference Tournament behind senior Scott Vieira, the league’s Player of the Year and a second-team NSCAA All-Region selection. Despite bowing out in the semifinals of the Skyline Tournament, Orellana proceeded to lead the Valiants to an upset of third-seeded Drew in the opening round of the ECAC Metro Tournament, only the third postseason victory in program history.

Before coming to Manhattanville, Orellana spent four seasons as an assistant men’s soccer coach at Division II New York Institute of Technology, helping guide the Bears to a 48-17-7 record from 2001-04. From 1998-2000, Orellana played semi-professional soccer in the United Soccer League for the Brooklyn Knights.

Orellana has been certified with an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and USSF National Youth Diploma. In 2004, Orellana earned his master’s degree in Science and Education from Queens College.

Orellana played his collegiate soccer at national powerhouse Southern Connecticut State University, earning All-Conference honors. As a sophomore, Orellana contributed to the Owls’ run to the NCAA Division II National Championship, one of six in the program’s history. A native of Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Orellana currently resides in Queens, N.Y., with his wife, Elizabeth.

Assistant Coach John Ciano

John Ciano has been promoted to top assistant coach on Didier Orellana’s staff in 2010. Ciano will transition into the top assistant position for 2010 after serving as a volunteer assistant in 2009, when he helped the squad capture the Freedom Conference regular-season title.

Ciano is responsible for assisting in all aspects of the Valiant men’s soccer program, including recruiting, fundraising, alumni affairs, academic monitoring, game and practice preparation, and assisting in individual training sessions.

Ciano comes to Purchase after playing three seasons for the Manhattan College men’s soccer team. The goaltender was a three-year starter in goal for the Jaspers following one season at Central Connecticut State University, starting 46 matches in goal and posting a 2.03 goals against average and a 672 save percentage in three seasons.

In his four-year collegiate career, Ciano made 54 starts in net and recorded a 1.96 GAA with a .683 save percentage. During his time at CCSU he was named to the CollegeSoccerNews.com Freshmen Making an Impact for weeks two and three of the season. His first season in Riverdale, he earned MAAC Defensive Player of the Week honors. In the summer of 2009, Ciano played for the Brooklyn Knights of the United Soccer Leagues’ Premier Development League, posting a 1-2-0 record with a 1.33 GAA.

Ciano holds coaching certificates from the USSF D License, NSCAA State Goalkeeping Diploma and NSCAA National Diploma. Ciano also is the goalkeeping coach for Eastern New York ODP program and spent five years with the Long Island ODP Program and also was involved with the Long Island Junior Soccer League camps.

2010 Schedule

Home Matches in BOLD and Played at GoValiants.com Field.
History was almost made in 2009 for the Manhattanville men's soccer team, as they were crowned the Freedom Conference regular-season champions for the first time, and came only one game short from advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999.

Under the tutelage of Freedom Coach of the Year Didier Orellana, the team finished with a 13-5-1 record, the best performance in over a decade. At season’s end, the squad walked away with many postseason accolades, including the conference Player of the Year, five All-Conference selections and two NSCAA All-Region selections. Heading into this upcoming season, Orellana will have to replace some small pieces of the puzzle from last season’s squad but will return the team’s top-10 scorers and starting goalie in the quest for an NCAA Tournament berth.

FORWARDS

The team put up 45 goals last season, and will return major pieces to their 4-5-1 formation.

Senior Kenneil Haye is coming off a season in which his point total was down, yet the All-Conference forward still added nine points on three goals and three assists and was a major key to the success of the team. As one of the best players in the conference in one-on-one situations in the open field, he will be looked upon to bring guidance and leadership to the underclassmen.

The Valiants will have many options besides Haye this season, with a group of forwards led by classmate Mitchel Ghigia and sophomores Papy N’Diaye, Eros Olazabal and Erick Olazabal. Ghigia scored in back-to-back games midway through the season and started nine of the last 10 games. N’Diaye finished the season with three goals, scoring a hat trick against NYU-Poly early in the season. The Olazabal brothers give the team a threatening combination, as both are not afraid to shoot at the goal. Erick finished the season with two goals and an assist, while Erick came on late in the season.

The Valiants also added two local freshmen, Bryan Merlos and Winston Curteza, up front who will develop under the upperclassmen.

MIDFIELD

The Valiants are stacked at the midfield position, with 28 of their 45 goals coming from the nine returning midfielders from 2009.

Led by the reigning Freedom Conference Player of the Year, junior Keston George, the middles will once again be helping in the scoring. George finished the year with nine goals and seven assists for 25 points along with four game-winners. He was also recognized at the end of the year with a spot on the All-Conference first team, the NSCAA Div. III All-Mid Atlantic Region team and the ECAC All-Star team. He began the season with a hat trick against The College of Staten Island and then continued to help the team, scoring conference game-winners against Misericordia and DeSales.

Junior Adam Kent made a smooth transition from defense to the midfield last year, scoring two goals with nine assists to earn an All-Conference second-team honor. The London, England, native had a career-high six points against Baruch with two goals and two assists and will be relied on heavily this season yet again.

Looking to step up this season are sophomores Moshee Kelyana and Daniel Carried. The duo fit right into the equation last season, combining for nine goals and three assists. Kelyana began the season on a high note, scoring in his first collegiate game against CSI. He went on to score two of his three goals against conference rival FDU-Florham in mid-October. Carried, on the other hand, bloomed in the second half of the season with two goals and two assists, including his goal against the Freedom Tournament semifinal clincher against King’s (Pa.). Both will once again be looked upon to play major minutes for the Valiants this year, as they begin their quest to lead the team as upperclassmen in the next few years.

After having a down year on the score sheet, senior Sebastian Chica is once again poised to help the team in any capacity. His four goals last season tied him for third in the team rankings, and he will continue to be a major aerial presence in the box for the Valiants.

The Valiants will once again get some key help from sophomores Edmond Addison, JP Arenas, Gerardo Sanchez, Nathan Hickey and Easton Morris, while freshmen Kyle Cassidy, Tyler Bailey and Jay Segarra also will look to make an impact in their first collegiate seasons.

DEFENSE

Quite possibly the most important piece of the championship run last season was the team’s stellar defense.

Two-time All-Conference honoree and NSCAA Div. III All-Mid Atlantic Region selection junior Emil Sjoberg was the quarterback of the Valiants’ backline. Having played in 18 of the 19 games last year, Sjoberg was a menace to the opposing attackers and developed great chemistry with the other three defenders on the field.

Heading into his final season with the team, graduate student Anthony Ferraro will return to his outside defense slot. After starting 14 games last season as a senior, he will help balance the experienced backline while also providing pressure with forays into the offensive end.

Sophomores Marco Blasetti and Sebastian Siring will have the task of filling the shoes of the graduating Keith Simons. Blasetti started 12 of 14 games and became a mainstay on the backline when current senior Daniel Aucar went down with a season-ending injury. He also scored twice against Wilkes and King’s (Pa.) and was credited with the primary assist on the overtime winner against Farmingdale State in late October.

Siring is another bloomer from last season’s freshman class, as the Swede made seven starts and scored the game-winner against Farmingdale State. Both he and Blasetti will be asked to contribute key minutes this season and may end up in the starting lineup on opening day.

The Valiants will also welcome back Aucar, who started the first six games of the season before he was sidelined the remainder of the year with a knee injury. A trio of freshmen will also look to crack the lineup this season, as the team adds Brandon Leggiero, Alex Torgersen and Thomas Wagner to the roster.

GOALKEEPERS

After missing all of 2008 due to injury, senior Jason Torres played every single minute of action last season and posted a 13-5-1 record with 0.72 goals against average and a 0.781 save percentage. He recorded an incredible 803:34 scoreless streak that ranked as the eighth-longest streak in Div. III history, while 11 shutouts tied him for the program single-season record. Torres was rewarded for his efforts with his first All-Conference second-team selection.

Sophomore Brad Deeb and freshman Zach Benton will also be around to challenge Torres for the starting spot all season long.

SCHEDULE

Once again Coach Orellana has put together a tough 10-game non-conference schedule in which the team will meet three NCAA Tournament qualifiers. Six of the non-league contests come at home, including welcoming SUNY Plattsburgh, Farmingdale State and Baruch College for the Valiant Classic on September 10-11.

The season will begin with a non-conference road affair against Richard Stockton on September 1. The team will open the home portion of the schedule against NCAA Tournament participant Plattsburgh in first day of the Valiant Classic on September 10. The team will conclude the Classic against Farmingdale State the next day. Entering the 2009 season, the Manhattanville men’s soccer looked to build on its first appearance in the Freedom Conference Tournament in 2008 and brought back a strong core of players that looked to take the team to the next level.

The Valiants were selected to finish third in the preseason coaches poll, but fifth-year head coach Didier Orellana had to find out which players would step up in net and on defense to replace four-yearkeeper Jerry Tellier and All-Conference defender Louis Villano, both of whom were lost to graduation. The 2009 squad was nevertheless a deep and experienced squad that featured 21 position players coming back and was complemented by a strong group of 18 newcomers looking to make immediate impacts.

The team was in good hands thanks to the reigning Freedom Conference Rookie of the Year, sophomore Keston George, along with junior Sebastian Chica. The duo combined for 18 goals and 44 points in 2008 and gave the team a great 1-2 punch at the midfield and forward positions. In the backfield, sophomore All-Conference defender Emil Sjöberg joined senior captain Keith Simons and classmate Anthony Ferraro to provide the backbone of the Valiant defense along with junior keeper Jason Torres, who had missed all of 2008 due to injury.

The season began with an offensive outburst against CUNYAC foe College of Staten Island, defeating the Dolphins, 7-0, with George leading the way with a career-high nine points with three goals and three assists. The nine-point game tied for second on the school’s single-match list and was the highest output by a Valiant since October 2, 2002.

The home opener was not as memorable, however, as the team dropped a hard-fought 2-1 decision to Vassar College. Junior Kenneil Haye scored the only goal for the Valiants despite Manhattanville finishing the contest with a 15-5 edge in shots over the Brewers.

A split in the Valiant Classic put the team at 2-2 in the standings with a 1-0 victory over Drew University and a 2-0 defeat to NYU, as George scored the only goal for the hosts in the Classic. The team then rebounded to win its next two contests by a combined score of 15-2 over local foes NYU-Poly and John Jay College. Freshman Papy N’Diaye netted a hat trick against NYU-Poly and Haye added a team-best two goals and an assist versus the Bloodhounds.

The Valiants could not find the net over the next two contests, falling to non-conference opponents Stevens, 3-0, and Merchant Marine, 2-0.

Sitting at 4-4-0 after eight non-conference games, the Valiants then went on a six-game winning streak – all by shutout – including five straight wins over Freedom Conference teams, to put the team in a great position. In the conference opener against defending champion Misericordia University, the Valiants walked away with a 1-0 victory as George once again scored the lone goal late in the 83rd minute. Torres picked up his third shutout of the season, making just one save as the defense pressured the Cougars throughout the match.

Manhattanville continued its non-conference schedule the next time out against Baruch College, posting a 6-0 win. Sophomore Adam Kent had a career game for the Valiants in the win, scoring twice and assisting on two for six points.

A pair of subsequent 3-0 victories over Wilkes University and FDU-Florham gave the team nine points after the three conference games and continued its hot Freedom start. Freshmen Moshee Kelyana, Marco Blasetti and Daniel Carlryd combined to score four of the team’s six goals in the two contests, with Kelyana leading the group with two goals against FDU-Florham.

The Valiants continued the streak with two more shutout victories against King’s (Pa.) College, 1-0, and DeSales University, 2-0. Blasetti scored in the King’s (Pa.) victory, while George and Chica added goals against DeSales. Two more shutouts extended Torres’ scoreless streak to 554:14 at the conclusion of the DeSales game, surpassing the previous school record of 504:18 set by A.J. Kretschmer ‘04 in 2001. The six straight shutouts also set a new program record and matched the school-record six-match winning streak set in 1999.

Manhattanville’s shutout and unbeaten streaks continued but the winning streak came to an end in the next contest against Eastern University, as the Valiants could only muster a 0-0 tie. The game was suspended on two occasions due to severe weather conditions, causing a wet playing surface on which neither team could set up many quality offensive chances.

Torres picked up his 10th shutout with a 1-0 double-overtime victory over Farmingdale State in the team’s non-conference finale. Freshman Sebastian Siring scored in the 109th minute off a corner kick to give the Valiants the thrilling win. With the victory, Torres tied Francesco Notaristefano ’07 for second all-time in single-season shutouts at the school.

The Valiants rounded out the regular-season with a 3-2 victory over Delaware Valley College, extending the unbeaten streak to nine games. The Aggies managed to snap Torres’ scoreless streak at 803:34, but his eight-game shutout streak also ranks as the eighth-longest in Division III men’s history. The squads traded goals until the visiting Valiants scored the winner in the 90th minute to capture the Freedom Conference regular-season crown and the top seed in the conference tournament.

The Valiants clinched a spot into the conference championship game with a 1-0 victory over King’s (Pa.) in the Freedom Conference semifinals, when Carlryd scored the lone goal of the match in the 63rd minute. Torres won his 13th game of the season and tied Kretschmer for first on the program’s single-season shutouts list with his 11th clean sheet of the year.

The Valiants brought a 10-match unbeaten streak and home-field advantage into the Freedom Conference title game against Misericordia, but the team came up just short in a heartbreaking 1-0 loss. After a penalty kick in the 13th minute gave Misericordia a 1-0 lead, the Valiants outplayed the Cougars in the contest and held a 29-11 edge in shots; yet the penalty kick goal stood as the defining moment in the contest and the Cougars escaped with the win and ended the Valiants’ year.

George had another stellar season for Manhattanville, as the sophomore was named the Freedom Conference Player of the Year after leading the team in goals and points. The midfielder scored nine goals with seven assists for 25 points. Kent led the squad with nine assists as a transformed from a defender to a midfielder, while Kelyana and Carlryd became two of the team’s top rising forwards, combining for nine goals and 21 points in their first collegiate seasons.

In addition to George’s Freedom award, Manhattanville also received five more honors from the Freedom Conference, led by Kent and Sjöberg earning first-team All-Conference laurels. Haye and Torres also were named to the All-Conference second team after playing instrumental roles in the team’s success, while Orellana also was recognized for the team’s success with the Freedom Coach of the Year award.

The honors continued to roll in for George and Sjöberg, as both players were named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Div. III All-Mid-Atlantic Region second team. George also earned a spot on the ECAC All-Star team following the season.

At the end of the academic year, Simons was also recognized for his accomplishments in the classroom with an NSCAA All-Region Scholar-Athlete honorable mention and the Manhattanville Department of Athletics Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year award.

Facilities

GoValiants.com Field

GoValiants.com Field is one of the top outdoor soccer facilities in the Northeast, and home to the Manhattanville field hockey, soccer and lacrosse programs.

Surrounded by a four-pillar lighting system, scoreboard, fully equipped press box and bleacher-style seating, GoValiants.com Field is made up of state-of-the-art Field Turf, a technology that emulates the stability and resilience of natural grass without the obvious maintenance. The field’s durability and elaborate drainage system allow the Valiants to play in all kinds of weather and also allow all 21 Manhattanville athletic teams to make use of the program for training, practice and games.

The field itself measures 120 x 72 yards and the four light poles – each 90-feet high – let the Valiants play under the lights several times each year, something few other Division III programs can do with regularity.

The press box at GoValiants.com Field is wired for Internet and phone access, allowing for live video broadcasts of Valiant athletics through GoValiants. TV and audio broadcasts via WMVL 88.1 FM, as well as live stats produced for every Valiant home game. There are also ample electrical outlets and a photography bay above the press box for use by media and team personnel. A high-powered sound system used for pre- and in-game announcements is also housed in the press box.

GoValiants.com Field is another valuable outdoor athletic venue, Manhattanville’s outdoor grass field. The regulation-size grass field was rebuilt in 2005 and plays host to several soccer matches during the year. While not equipped with lights, the grass field does possess a brand new scoreboard, which can be accessed through the press box at GoValiants.com Field.

With both turf and natural grass options, the Valiants hold a unique advantage over every other team in the conference in that they can choose a field surface to suit the type of game the team wants to play on that day.

The Valiant men’s soccer team won a program-record seven matches on the home turf in 2009, including shutting out five straight opponents to end the regular season and another shutout in the Freedom Conference Tournament semifinals. In all, the team ceded just eight goals in 12 home matches last year, including eight clean sheets and shutouts in all four Freedom Conference regular-season matches.

Kennedy Gymnasium

Kennedy Gymnasium

Dedicated in October 1957 by the family of eventual United States President John F. Kennedy, Kennedy Gymnasium is the day-to-day home of the Manhattanville Department of Athletics as well as the home court for the Valiant basketball and volleyball teams.

Kennedy’s main attraction, a basketball and volleyball arena, is flanked by strength, training, locker room and office facilities and is the operational home of all Valiant sports.

All in-season sports have their own space inside Kennedy Gymnasium’s several locker rooms (one of which is pictured to the left), with each player allowed his or her own locker. Inside the fully-enclosed locker rooms, the coaching staff can address the team before and during matches, and the rooms are a perfect congregating spot for teams at any time throughout the season.

The rest of the locker room facilities inside Kennedy Gym include full shower and locker facilities, as well as access to Manhattanville’s swimming pool, strength and conditioning facilities, and athletic training facilities.

The offices of almost all varsity head and assistant coaches at the school are also located within Kennedy Gym, as are the offices of all Manhattanville athletics administrators. Kennedy Gymnasium is also host to several camps and local recreational groups during the summer.

Manhattanville’s athletic trophies and banners, highlighting the program’s best accomplishments throughout the school’s distinguished athletic history, are also located inside the lobby and main arena of Kennedy Gymnasium.

Strength & Conditioning

Focuses on the development of the student-athlete, the Manhattanville Department of Athletics views strength and conditioning as one of the most important developmental tools. The facilities inside Kennedy Gymnasium are a testament to that philosophy.

The strength and conditioning department is housed inside Healthworks, a large, state-of-the-art weight and cardiovascular training facility located on the bottom floor of Kennedy Gymnasium. The room includes several power development stations, glut ham benches, decline abdominal benches and physioballs and cardiovascular machines.

In late 2007, Manhattanville College opened a new Student Center in the center of campus that includes a first-class workout area for the general student population, thus making Healthworks the exclusive strength and conditioning home of Valiant student-athletes.

Healthworks is supervised by Manhattanville’s Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, Corey Crane. Crane, along with his assistant strength and conditioning coach, is responsible for managing and providing the design, implementation, supervision and evaluation of the strength and conditioning program utilized by all 21 Valiant varsity sports.

Athletic Training

The Sports Medicine facilities at Manhattanville College are located inside Kennedy Gymnasium and are the place where all Valiant student-athletes come to receive comprehensive health care from any of Manhattanville’s three fully-certified, full-time athletic trainers.

The athletic training staff has five main objectives: prevention of athletic injuries; recognition, evaluation and treatment of injuries that do occur; rehabilitation; health care administration and professional development. The athletic training staff also has on-campus access to state-of-the-art training methods, including ultrasound capability, electrical muscle stimulation and whirlpool treatments.

Scott McVier, a veteran of nearly 20 years in sports medicine, is Manhattanville’s Head Athletic Trainer. McVier worked for the Valiants from 2000-02 following a 12-year stint as Associate Athletic Trainer at Pace University, and came back to the school for a second stint beginning in 2006.

JR Barkamian joined the staff in August 2008 as Assistant Athletic Trainer after spending time at Division I Fordham University. The department also employs a full-time Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer to help coordinate the school’s 21 sports.

Manhattanville College

Manhattanville College, located just north of New York City in thriving Westchester County, has been educating young people on its beautiful 100-acre campus for over 150 years. With only 1,700 undergraduate students, each student is able to make a personal contribution to the campus community in more than 50 areas of study and 50 campus clubs. Also one of the most diverse campuses in the area, Manhattanville attracts students from 48 states and 76 countries.

THE CORE VALUES
Proudly a value-oriented liberal arts college for more than 150 years, Manhattanville is still guided by the mission “to educate students to become ethically and socially responsible leaders for the global community.”
Manhattanville is committed to following its mission by:
• Ensuring the intellectual, ethical and social development of each student within a community of engaged scholars and teachers.
• Encouraging each student to apply his or her development as an independent leader and creative thinker to career and personal goals.
• Providing a diverse campus community whose members know, care about and support each other and actively engage themselves both in the local community and beyond.

HISTORY
Founded in 1841 on Manhattan’s Lower East Side as the Academy of the Sacred Heart, a Catholic boarding school for girls, Manhattanville College has been educating students in the New York area for over 150 years.

In 1847, the academy relocated to an area just north of New York City on a hill overlooking the village of Manhattanville, and was rebuilt there after a fire in 1888.

In March of 1917, 76 years after its founding as an academy, Manhattanville was chartered as a college by the New York State Board of Regents, allowing the school to grant undergraduate and graduate degrees. Thirty-five years later, in 1952, Manhattanville moved to its current location in Purchase, N.Y., on the estate of former publisher Whitelaw Reid.

Co-educational since 1969 and non-denominational in its governance since 1971, Manhattanville’s original vision lives on in the tradition of service begun by the Society of the Sacred Heart. This tradition, which preceded the college’s charter, determined the character the school would have: a firm belief in enhancing both the local and global community and to accept responsibility for this segment of human history.

NEW YORK CITY
While on the school’s beautiful 100-acre campus, students are only a 30-minute car or train ride from New York City, blending the leisurely pace of suburbia with the rich cultural resources of the most populous city in the United States.

Manhattanville’s location offers students a unique opportunity to take advantage of all that New York City has to offer. Whether you want to enjoy a Broadway show, catch a professional sports event, tour a museum or simply take in the city’s many well-known landmarks such as the Statue of Liberty or Times Square, the city offers something for everyone to enjoy.

The school’s proximity to the worldwide leader in finance, entertainment and culture also offers Manhattanville students a unique and exciting chance for jobs and internships both in the city and in the thriving New York City suburbs, including right in Purchase!

“What Happens Here Matters”
Manhattanville’s tradition of community and service continues today with the school’s continuing effort to ensure “What Happens Here Matters.” Countless students are involved annually in a number of community service and social action programs.

Last year, Manhattanville’s students contributed over 30,000 hours of service while gaining valuable experience in such areas as management, teaching and advocacy.

At the heart of Manhattanville’s ethic of community service and service learning is the Duchesne Center for Religion and Social Justice. The center, which coordinates many of Manhattanville’s service programs, promotes programs that endeavor to create a climate in which all Manhattanville College members will value an appreciation for the differences among us.

MY SOLDIER
Manhattanville’s most well-known social action program was founded by a Valiant student-athlete, men’s soccer player Juan Salas, a naturalized U.S. citizen originally from Venezuela who saw active combat duty in Iraq and was commended for saving the life of a child during his tour.

Salas said his mission in Iraq was to “win the hearts and minds of the Iraqi people,” but he continued that while the service was at times challenging, “it was the letters that kept me going. From kids, boy scouts, students. A letter was like a piece of gold, something you want to keep for the rest of your life.”

When Salas got back to Manhattanville, he wanted to help his fellow soldiers overseas and approached former College President Richard A. Berman with an idea. Together with Berman and administrator Anne Gold, they launched the My Soldier program on February 14, 2004.

Participants in the My Soldier program, who are not limited to Manhattanville students, send letters and occasional care packages overseas to boost the quality of life for American troops.

A non-politically affiliated program, My Soldier has been wildly successful, with participants from all 50 states and over 400,000 people in total, reaching more than 175,000 U.S. troops.

To enroll in the My Soldier program or to learn more, visit www.MySoldier.com.

President Molly Easo Smith (right) became the college’s 11th president on July 1, 2009 and will look to continue Manhattanville’s recent period of unprecedented growth.
