A staple in the New York region and an emerging program on the national stage, the Manhattanville College Athletic Department continues to bolster its reputation as a program on the rise in all areas: athletic achievement, academic success and overall participation.

More than 300 Valiant student-athletes (nearly 20 percent of the student body) took part in intercollegiate athletics during the 2012-13 school year, showcasing the continued and rapid growth of athletics at Manhattanville. With women's golf beginning play as a varsity sport last year, the program now sponsors 20 competitive intercollegiate teams – including eight teams that have been established or re-established in the last six years alone.

And the teams at Manhattanville have proved themselves more than able to hold their own in an increasingly competitive athletic landscape. Fourteen of the school's 20 intercollegiate programs earned berths in their respective conference championships last year, while both men's hockey and women's hockey teams received national rankings over the course of the year.

On an individual level, many Valiant student-athletes were honored in 2012-13 as well. Field hockey junior Amanda DeChent was named the program's first-ever NFHCA All-American, giving Manhattanville at least one All-America selection in 13 of the last 14 years, while senior high jumper Bill Motherway was crowned the school's first champion at the MAC Indoor Track & Field Championships. Manhattanville also boasted two Freedom Conference Players of the Year to go with 45 combined All-Conference honorees. In addition, nearly 40 former Valiants have gone on to play their sport professionally either domestically or overseas in recent years, including former baseball standout Dan Fiorito '12, who signed a deal with the New York Yankees in August 2012.

But at Manhattanville, athletics is only one part of becoming a well-rounded student-athlete. In the classroom, Valiant athletes consistently achieve higher grade-point averages than the student body as a whole, as evidenced by the 3.15 cumulative Athletic Department GPA for both the Fall 2012 and Spring 2013 semesters and the fact that 14 Valiant teams recorded a team GPA of 3.000 or higher for the spring term. In addition, softball senior Jessica Van Galen was named the school's third CoSIDA Academic All-America selection in the last three years, and she was also one of two CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees and one of 95 Academic All-Conference honorees for Manhattanville this year.

Community service also continues to play a vital role in the student-athlete experience at Manhattanville, as each team performs hundreds of community service hours each year. As a result of their efforts, the school was the recipient of two Jostens/NADIIIAA Community Service Awards in 2009, making Manhattanville one of only 13 institutions honored and the only school to receive two awards, as well as earning the Community Partner Award from the Westchester Medical Center in 2013. The service aspect of the Valiant student-athlete experience plays a large role in helping Valiant athletes fulfill the college's mission of educating students to be ethically and socially responsible leaders in a global community.

Keith Levinthal returns for his 11th full year as Director of Athletics at Manhattanville College in 2013-14 and continues to establish the school as a regional and national leader in athletic success, academic achievement and community involvement.

Levinthal has been a part of Manhattanville in some capacity for 15 years, having previously served 12 seasons as head coach of the school’s nationally recognized men’s hockey program from 1999 until 2011.

Levinthal has led the Valiant athletic program to unprecedented heights in recent years, as Manhattanville has collected 56 conference championships – 29 regular-season championships and 27 tournament titles – in the last decade. In that span, the program has also produced 32 conference Players of the Year, 18 All-American selections and one National Player of the Year.

As a head coach with the men’s hockey team, Levinthal stepped aside with the most wins of any mentor in Manhattanville department history, posting a 202-84-28 (.688) record in 12 seasons and twice earning ECAC West Conference Coach of the Year honors. He left as the 14th winniest coach in NCAA hockey history (all Divisions) and sixth among Division III leaders in terms of winning percentage, and led the team to four NCAA Tournaments, four ECAC West Tournament titles and a pair of first-place finishes in the ECAC West regular-season standings.

Manhattanville had another successful season with Levinthal at the helm in 2012-13. While no team was able to break through with an NCAA Tournament berth, 14 of 20 teams saw postseason play. On the field, the department boasted its first field hockey All-American in program history in junior Amanda DeChent, to go with two Freedom Conference Players of the Year (DeChent and Jessica Van Galen) and 45 All-Conference honorees. Off the field, Van Galen gave Manhattanville its third straight year with a CoSIDA Academic All-American thanks to her spot on the second team, while she was also one of a pair of CoSIDA Academic All-District selections and one of the school’s 95 student-athletes recognized by their respective conferences for academic success.

In 2007-08, Levinthal guided the Athletics Department as it transitioned from the Skyline Conference to the Freedom Conference and also reintroduced volleyball and cross country programs to the school. The Valiants saw immediate success in its new conference as two teams clinched Freedom Conference regular-season titles and three programs won conference tournaments in advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The women’s hockey team also advanced to the program’s third National Championship game, while the women’s soccer team reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history.

Levinthal also led the Valiants to a record-breaking year in their final season with the Skyline Conference in 2006-07, as a program-record six teams won conference championships and a record five teams qualified for the NCAA Tournament. His men’s hockey team spent 13 consecutive weeks as the top-ranked team in the nation and earned its first-ever berth in the national semifinals, while goalkeeper Andrew Gallant became the first Manhattanville student-athlete to be named a National Player of the Year. Six coaches were named as conference Coach of the Year, while a program-best four Valiant student-athletes were also named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honorees. And, for the first time ever, Valiant teams won more league championships than any other Skyline Conference team.

Levinthal saw immediate athletic success during his first year at the helm, as all 14 of Manhattanville’s athletic programs participated in postseason play during the 2003-04 year. Four teams earned bids to ECAC postseason tournaments, while the women’s ice hockey program earned its third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

But in addition to athletic success, at the heart of every successful program lie sound resources for its lifeblood – its student-athletes. Therefore, Levinthal has made it a priority to provide the resources needed to create an environment in which Manhattanville student-athletes can achieve at the highest level academically, socially and athletically.

In 2004, Levinthal received the honor of serving on the NCAA Men’s and Women’s Ice Hockey Rules Committee. The NCAA selects 13 members to serve on the committee and only four from Division III institutions. Levinthal began his term on Sept. 1, 2004 and left his four-year post on at the beginning of the 2008-09 school year.

A 1995 graduate of Hobart College, Levinthal is committed to developing all aspects of the athletics program. In his tenure at Manhattanville, Levinthal’s agenda has included:

Student-Athlete Development - Manhattanville continues to be on the cutting edge in the total development of its student-athletes. Valiant student-athletes have exhibited a strong presence and desire to serve the New York area. All varsity teams participate in outreach activities, positively impacting numerous area youth groups, hospitals, schools and agencies.

Professionalism - Under Levinthal’s guidance, Manhattanville athletics received a much-needed face-lift. With a new website, logo, team colors and method of business, he has streamlined and energized the department. The result has been increased exposure to Manhattanville student-athletes, improved performance both on and off the field, and increased support from fans and alumni.

Exposure - Manhattanville Athletics continues to maintain a strong presence on national and regional media outlets. Levinthal has helped increase the program’s media opportunities as well as displaying the values of the Valiants constantly in the public eye.

Assistant Director of Athletics Julene Fisher

Julene Fisher enters her ninth year as Assistant Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator, and her 11th year overall within the Manhattanville Athletic Department, in 2013-14.

As Assistant Athletic Director and SWA, Fisher is responsible for assisting the Director of Athletics in an administrative capacity, helping to run the school’s 20-sport Athletic Department. She also handles the scheduling for all of Manhattanville’s sports and handles travel accommodations and assignment of the department’s student workers.

A former Assistant Sports Information Director at Manhattanville, Fisher also has assisted the Sports Information Department by serving as official scorer for baseball games. Fisher began her tenure at Manhattanville as an administrative assistant in the Manhattanville development office before moving over to the Athletic Department.

Fisher graduated from Marymount College in 2002 as an English/Journalism major. She served as the editor-in-chief of Marymount’s student newspaper, The Cormont, and also was a four-year letterwinner in both swimming and softball at the school.

In television, she worked in conjunction with ABC News, the Discovery Channel and HBO to produce the hit series, “The Justice Files”, as well as HBO’s Emmy award winning documentary “In Memoriam: New York City, 9/11”.

Head Coach Kate Vlahakis
Second Season • St. Lawrence ’04

Kate Vlahakis returns for her second season as the head coach of the Manhattanville women’s basketball team in 2013-14.

Despite not taking over as head coach until the second week of the school year, Vlahakis guided the Valiants to a 10-14 overall record a one-game improvement from the season prior. She also helped senior Taylor Wilson and sophomore Alyson Caiazzo earn All-Freedom Conference second-team honors, while Caiazzo also was named to the MBWA All-Met first team as well.

Vlahakis came to Manhattanville after a two-year stint at Framingham State University, where she served as an assistant coach under Patricia O’Brien and played a vital role in all aspects of the Division III program. As coach with the Rams, she helped the program to a MASCAC Tournament appearance in her second season and also mentored the reigning MASCAC Rookie of the Year as well as a second-team All-Conference performer.

Prior to her time in Framingham, Vlahakis served three seasons as an assistant coach at Simmons College. While in Boston, the Sharks posted a combined 44-29 record in three years and earned a spot in the GNAC Tournament in all three seasons.

A native of Lebanon, N.H., Vlahakis played for nationally ranked St. Lawrence University where she earned all-tournament recognition and was named the most improved player in 2003. While at St. Lawrence, Vlahakis was a member of the Saints team that posted a perfect record in the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (now the Liberty League), earned a conference championship, and appeared in the NCAA Tournament.

Vlahakis graduated from St. Lawrence in 2007 and also earned her master’s degree in business with a specialization in Athletic Administration from Southern New Hampshire University in 2012.

Assistant Coach Kiki Campbell
Second Season • Geneseo ’11

Khadija “Kiki” Campbell is back for her second season as an assistant coach with the Manhattanville women’s basketball team in 2013-14.

In her first season on the staff, Campbell helped with the development of Manhattanville’s guards including Taylor Wilson, who earned Freedom Conference second-team honors at the end of the season. As a team, the Valiants finished the year at 10-14 under the watch of Campbell and head coach Kate Vlahakis.

As the top assistant, Campbell will be responsible for much of the day-to-day operation of the women’s basketball program, including on- and off-campus recruiting, fundraising and alumni affairs, and game and practice preparation and instruction.

Campbell came to Manhattanville after serving as an assistant coach at her alma mater SUNY Geneseo for the 2011-12 season. Prior to her stint on the sideline, Campbell appeared in 83 games while starting in 76 for the Knights, averaging 8.9 points per game in three seasons under head coach Scott Hemer. She was a two-time All-SUNYAC honoree as well.

Campbell received her bachelor’s degree in communications from SUNY Geneseo in May of 2011. She currently lives in the Bronx, N.Y., while pursuing her master’s degree in sport business management at Manhattanville.

Assistant Coach Liz Brosseau

Liz Brosseau enters her first season as an assistant coach with Manhattanville women’s basketball team in 2013-14.

Brosseau comes to Manhattanville from Framingham State College, where she served on the Rams’ coaching staff for three seasons. She spent her first two years as an assistant coach with the program alongside current Manhattanville head coach Kate Vlahakis before being elevated to interim head coach for the 2012-13 season, in which she coordinated all recruiting efforts, planned all practices and scouting, and managed the coaching staff. Under her guidance, the Rams went 14-12 and reached the semifinals of the MASCAC Tournament.

Prior to her time at Framingham, Brosseau served as an assistant varsity coach and the head junior varsity coach for the women’s basketball team at Medway High School.

The Freedom Conference

With the exception of the Valiant men’s and women’s hockey teams, all 20 Manhattanville varsity sports have competed under the umbrella of the Middle Atlantic Conferences since joining the conference prior to the 2007-08 school year.

Founded in 1912 and celebrating its 100th year in existence this year, the MAC is one of the oldest intercollegiate athletic associations in the United States. An umbrella organization consisting of three conferences – Commonwealth, Freedom and Middle Atlantic – the MAC sponsors 23 Division III sports and boasts 18 current member schools, including recent additions Hood and Stevenson.

With the exception of cross country, indoor/outdoor track and women’s golf, all Manhattanville sports compete in the very competitive Freedom Conference alongside seven other institutions. As a result, every Valiant athletic team receives the opportunity to annually compete for a conference title and an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

Kate Vlahakis returns to Manhattanville for her second season as head coach of the women’s basketball team. Last year, the team finished with an overall record of 10-14 (3-11 Freedom), but Vlahakis and the Valiants are expecting to turn things around this season. The Valiants return several key players from 2012-13 while adding six new pieces to the team as they look to compete for the 2013-14 Freedom Conference Championship.

This season the Valiants have been selected to finish in sixth place in the preseason coaches’ poll, as defending Freedom Conference Champion FDU-Florham was picked unanimously for the top spot with all first-place votes. DeSales was voted to finish second while Eastern has been selected third with King’s (Pa.) to finish fourth.

Last season Manhattanville was first in the league in field goal percentage as they shot nearly 40 percent from the floor. But the Valiants will miss their top-scorer from last season in Taylor Wilson ’13, who led the Freedom Conference by averaging a league-best 19.0 points per game and earned herself All-Conference second-team honors. Manhattanville was also among the top of the league last year in rebounding, led in large part by the Freedom Conference’s top rebounder, junior forward Alyson Caiazzo, who returns her junior season.

Individually, Manhattanville has a young roster that does not include any seniors, and so Vlahakis will be looking for leadership from all the players on their roster, but mostly from the three juniors returning from last year. Caiazzo headlines the returners coming back from last year as she averaged 15.1 points to go along with 15.0 rebounds per game. Classmate Bri Pabon also played well last season as a sophomore, averaging 11.1 points per game, but she will need to pick up some slack as she continues to play in the point guard position. Manhattanville was near the bottom of the conference in assists last season and are hoping that Pabon can facilitate the offense.

With only six returners from last season, Vlahakis brings in six freshmen this year to complement a roster that is already filled with youth. The newcomers on the roster are hoping to make an immediate impact as the Valiants look to surprise in Freedom Conference play.

GUARDS

With the loss of Wilson from last year, Manhattanville will need a lot more offensive production from the guard position this season, as Pabon leads a pack of four newcomers who will compete for playing time with as many as five newcomers looking to make an immediate impact.

Pabon was Manhattanville’s best scorer as a true guard last year, ranking third on the team with 11.1 points per game while also dishing out a team-leading 99 assists to rank fourth in the Freedom Conference. As a sophomore, she also ranked second in the conference with a team-best 79 steals, and will be needed to affect the game on both ends of the floor again as a junior.

Joining Pabon in the backcourt will be three other returners from a year ago, who are ready to get more opportunities on the court. Junior Shayna Robinson is back for the Valiants after starting in mostly every game last season while averaging 5.1 points per game and totaling 58 rebounds with 36 assists. Sophomores Ashley Raaf and Ashley Franklin also join the group of returners at the guard position for the Valiants. Both Raaf and Franklin averaged around five points per game last season, and are expected to increase their production with more looks at the basket this season.

Six newcomers enter the fold and will look to make an impact right away during their first season with the team, as freshmen Alexis Sommers, Alyson Chase, Candice Scott-Mason, Brittany Deieso, and Sarah Kelley are all playing for the opportunity to make immediate impact for the Valiants.

FORWARDS

Caiazzo returns for the Valiants as the primary piece in the front court on a roster that is depleted at the forward position. After an All-Conference and All-Met season as a sophomore, Caiazzo will be asked to replicate her season in which she was one of only three players in Division III to average 15 points and 15 rebounds per game. The forward tied for third in the country with 20 double-doubles in 24 regular-season games in 2012-13, and will need to be a huge presence on the glass for Manhattanville again as a junior.

The Valiants only have two other true forwards listed on their roster this year, and one of them is sidelined for the year with an injury. Sophomore Sharanda Barboza was hoping to return for Manhattanville this year after playing in 15 games last year as a freshman, but she will be unable to compete this season. Therefore, Caiazzo hopes to get some help from freshman Jazmin Pryce, who steps in for her first year at the collegiate level.

Vlahakis also expects Franklin and Chase to potentially see some time in a forward role as a swing player, as the Valiants will likely go with a small lineup that forces opponents to match their up-tempo pace.

SCHEDULE

This year the Valiants will open their schedule in Boston, Mass., at the Emerson Tip-Off Tournament against Elmira on November 16, and the following day will take on either host Emerson or Wentworth in the consolation or championship contest. Manhattanville travels to New York University on November 20 before its home opener on November 23, when the Valiants host Drew for a 6:30 p.m. matchup in the team’s first game on the newly renovated home court.

The Freedom Conference slate opens up on December 7, as the Valiants take on Eastern at Kennedy Gym, before travelling to Dallas, Pa., three days later to take on Misericordia in another Freedom Conference battle. The remaining non-conference slate sees Manhattanville play Wheaton (12/17), William Paterson (12/19), SUNY Old Westbury (12/21), SUNY Purchase (1/3), and Farmingdale State (1/9).

The second part of the Freedom Conference schedule opens with an away matchup against 2013 conference champion and this year’s favorite FDU-Florham on January 15, starting a stretch of 12 straight Freedom Conference games. The regular season comes to an end at home as the Valiants take on the Misericordia Cougars on February 22.

Freedom Conference Tournament play begins on February 26 with the semifinal matchups, with the winners of both contests meeting for the league’s automatic qualifying bid on March 1. The winner will advance to the NCAA Tournament and look to make a long run.

Facilities

Kennedy Gymnasium

Dedicated in October 1957 by the family of eventual United States President John F. Kennedy, Kennedy Gymnasium is the home of the Manhattanville men’s and women’s basketball and women’s volleyball programs, while also serving as the day-to-day operational home of the Manhattanville Department of Athletics.

Kennedy’s main attraction, a basketball and volleyball arena, has balcony and ground-level seating and standing room for nearly 1,000 spectators and the intimate atmosphere gives the Manhattanville teams that play inside it a loud and imposing home-court advantage. With bleachers lining the near sideline of the court and a large balcony overhanging the bleachers, there is plenty of room for Valiant friends, family and fans to cheer on their favorite Manhattanville teams throughout the season.

The Kennedy Gym building also houses the Valiants’ strength & conditioning and sports medicine departments, a swimming pool, multiple locker rooms and office facilities, making it the primary meeting point for all of Manhattanville’s varsity sports teams throughout the year.

The newest addition to the renovation project was the complete renovation of the Kennedy Gym court, which was completely torn up and resurfaced thanks to a sizeable donation from the “Sunday Run” basketball group. Manhattanville partnered with J & J Gym Floors for the new floor, which eliminates the multitude of dead spots that plagued the 55-year old floor while also creating crisp, new graphics and a vibrant new paint job on the court itself.

In 2011, the basketball programs unveiled new banners on the gym walls honoring the best players in program history, one (and soon to be two) of which recognizes the Valiant women who have reached the 1,000-point plateau.

In addition, the offices of all Valiant coaches are also located within Kennedy Gym, as are the offices of all Manhattanville athletic administrators. Kennedy Gymnasium is also host to several camps and local recreational groups during the summer and throughout the school year.

The Manhattanville women’s basketball team has brought plenty of postseason action to Kennedy Gymnasium in recent seasons, hosting four Freedom Conference Tournament games and the final two rounds of the ECAC South Region Tournament in the last three seasons alone.

The Valiants are 4-3 all-time in conference tournament games on the home floor and advanced to two of the last three Freedom Conference Tournament championship games thanks to semifinal victories at home in both 2008-09 and 2009-10.

Locker Rooms

Dedicated in October 1957 by the family of eventual United States President John F. Kennedy, Kennedy Gymnasium is the day-to-day operational home of the Manhattanville Athletic Department as well as the home court for the Valiant basketball and volleyball teams.

The entire facility received a major overhaul during the 2012-13 school year, completely renovating almost every square inch of the venerable building.

The bottom floor now features a completely redrawn floor plan, complete with new and improved locker room facilities for Valiant and visiting teams. All Manhattanville locker rooms now feature new wall-to-wall carpeting, individualized wooden locker stalls with personalized nameplates, customized team white boards and video projection systems installed in every room, while the shower facilities were also given a much-needed upgrade. The renovations also created specific visiting team locker room and shower facilities as well.

All in-season sports have their own space inside Kennedy Gymnasium’s several locker rooms (including the women’s basketball locker room to the left). Inside the fully-enclosed locker rooms, members of the coaching staff can address their team before, during and after games, while the rooms also serve as a perfect congregating spot for teams at any time throughout the season.

The rest of the locker rooms inside Kennedy Gym include full shower and locker facilities, as well as access to Manhattanville’s swimming pool, strength and conditioning facilities, and athletic training facilities.

The Kennedy lobby area also received a major facelift in the spring of 2013. A new floor was installed and a large collage showcasing some of the school’s many championship teams was created, while new posters recognize all of Manhattanville’s conference championships as well as the school’s long list of All-Americans, Players of the Year and other individual award winners. Team photos of all 20 varsity sports also hang in the main lobby as well in addition to large-scale photos of some of the College’s most prolific student-athletes.

As a whole, the Kennedy Gym renovations help Manhattanville keep up with the top teams in the country and allow the school to continue its unique home-field advantage both on the court and in the locker room.
Focused on the overall development of the student-athlete, the Manhattanville Strength & Conditioning staff maximizes the athletic performance of Valiant athletes by using the most effective and efficient training techniques to compete injury free at the highest level of competition. The aim is to instill a sense of self-discipline, respect and responsibility to achieve the ultimate goal of a team championship.

The strength and conditioning department is housed inside Healthworks, a large, state-of-the-art weight and cardiovascular training facility located on the bottom floor of the Athletic Department hub, Kennedy Gymnasium. The room includes several power development stations, glute ham benches, decline abdominal benches and physioballs and cardiovascular machines that are available for student-athletes use both in and out of season as well as during the summer.

In 2007, Manhattanville College opened the new Richard A. Berman Student Center in the center of campus that includes a first-class workout area for the general student population; as a result, Healthworks is now the exclusive strength and conditioning home of Valiant student-athletes.

He received a bachelor’s degree in exercise science from Ithaca in 2010 and also earned a master’s in exercise science and health promotion from California University of Pennsylvania in 2012.

Sports Medicine

The Sports Medicine facilities at Manhattanville are located inside the hub of Manhattanville Athletics, Kennedy Gym, and are the first place where Valiant student-athletes from all 20 varsity sports come to receive comprehensive health care from any of the department’s fully-certified, full-time athletic trainers.

The staff is available for all Manhattanville practices and games as well as throughout the day both during the school year and into the summer months for the sole use of Manhattanville’s 300-plus student-athletes.

The athletic training staff has five main objectives: prevention of athletic injuries; recognition, evaluation and treatment of injuries that do occur; rehabilitation; health care administration; and professional development. The athletic training staff also has on-campus access to state-of-the-art training methods, including ultrasound capability, electrical muscle stimulation and whirlpool treatments.

The Manhattanville training staff is also privileged to be affiliated with some of the best physicians in the Westchester area, benefiting from a close relationship with Plancher Orthopedics and Sports Medicine and head team physician Dr. Kevin Plancher, who works out of nearby Greenwich, Conn.
Manhattanville College

Manhattanville College, located just north of New York City in thriving Westchester County, has been educating young people on its beautiful 100-acre campus for over 150 years. With only 1,700 undergraduate students, each student is able to make a personal contribution to the campus community in more than 50 areas of study and 50 campus clubs. Also one of the most diverse campuses in the area, Manhattanville attracts students from 48 states and 76 countries.

SCHOOL HISTORY

Founded in 1841 in a three-story building on Houston Street of Manhattan's Lower East Side as the Academy of the Sacred Heart, a Catholic boarding school for girls, Manhattanville has been educating students in the New York area for over 150 years.

Six years after its founding in 1847, the academy relocated to an area just north of New York City on a hill overlooking the village of Manhattanville. Destroyed by fire in 1888, the academy was rebuilt on the same foundation and continued to grow both in curriculum and physical environment. In March of 1917 – 76 years after its founding as an academy – Manhattanville was chartered as a college by the New York State Board of Regents, allowing the school to grant undergraduate and graduate degrees for the first time.

Thirty-five years later, in 1952, Manhattanville moved to its current location in Purchase on the former estate of New York Tribune publisher and Ambassador to England Whitelaw Reid. The estate included a mansion, Ophir Hall, which has since been renamed Reid Castle and serves as the centerpiece of Manhattanville's picturesque Westchester campus.

ABOUT MANHATTANVILLE

With more than 50 areas of undergraduate study, ranging from the Liberal Arts to cross-disciplinary studies such as Environmental Science and professional concentrations such as Business and Museum Studies, our students discover their passions and feel empowered to make a difference in the larger local, national and international communities around us. The school offers Bachelor of Arts, Fine Arts, Music and Science degrees, while also housing a highly respected and blossoming array of graduate programs.

Our students also participate in over 50 social clubs, run an award-winning radio station, and collectively engage in over 30,000 hours of community service each year. Many students also design their own majors by matching interests with courses, providing a unique educational experience both in and out of the classroom.

Our beautiful 100-acre campus with its historic architecture and recent environmentally-responsible buildings is set in thriving Westchester County. Life at Manhattanville blends the leisurely pace of suburbia with the rich cultural resources and fast pace of New York City, which is only thirty minutes away.

THE CORE VALUES

Proudly a value-oriented liberal arts college for more than 150 years, Manhattanville is still guided by the mission "to educate students to become ethically and socially responsible leaders for the global community."

Manhattanville is committed to following its mission by:

• Ensuring the intellectual, ethical and social development of each student within a community of engaged scholars and teachers;
• Encouraging each student to develop as an independent leader and creative thinker in pursuing career and personal goals; and
• Providing a diverse, inclusive and nurturing environment which develops in each student a commitment to service and leadership within a global community.
A TRADITION OF SERVICE

Co-educational since 1969 and non-denominational in its governance since 1971, Manhattanville’s original vision lives on in the tradition of service begun by the Society of the Sacred Heart. This tradition, which preceded the college’s charter, determined the character the school would have: a firm belief in the liberalizing effect of the liberal arts, a lively sense of tradition, a wide-ranging interest in the most humane manifestations of the human spirit, and a continuing effort to enhance the local community and to accept responsibility for this segment of human history.

As a result, countless students are involved annually in a number of community service and social action programs. Last year, Manhattanville’s students contributed over 30,000 hours of service while gaining valuable experience in such areas as management, teaching and advocacy.

At the heart of Manhattanville’s ethic of community service and service learning is the Duchesne Center for Religion and Social Justice. The center, which coordinates many of Manhattanville’s myriad service programs, serves as the coordinator, catalyst and incubator for community outreach, cultural, leadership and spiritual initiatives both across the Manhattanville campus and beyond.

In addition, the Connie Hogarth Center for Social Action works closely with the Departments of Sociology and Political Science and helps the next generation of college-educated activists acquire the practical skills and knowledge necessary for work in some field of social change.

NEW YORK CITY

While on the school’s beautiful 100-acre campus, students are only a 30-minute car or Metro North train ride from New York City, giving them the chance to blend the leisurely pace of suburban life in Westchester with the most populous and exciting city in the United States.

Manhattanville’s location offers students a unique opportunity to take advantage of all that New York City has to offer. Whether you want to enjoy a Broadway show, catch a professional sports event, tour a museum or art gallery, shop at the world’s best stores, dine at the country’s best restaurants, or simply stroll around and take in the city’s many well-known landmarks such as the Statue of Liberty or Times Square, New York City offers something for everyone to enjoy.

The school’s proximity to the worldwide leader in finance, entertainment, culture and more also offers Manhattanville undergraduate and graduate students a unique and exciting opportunity for jobs and internships both in the city itself and in the thriving New York City suburbs, including right here in Purchase!

MY SOLDIER

Manhattanville’s most well-known social action program was founded by a Valiant student-athlete, men’s soccer player Juan Salas, a naturalized U.S. citizen originally from Venezuela who saw active combat duty in Iraq and was commended for saving the life of a child during his tour.

Salas said his mission in Iraq was to “win the hearts and minds of the Iraqi people,” but he continued that while the service was at times challenging: “It was the letters that kept me going,” he said. “From kids, boy scouts, students. A letter was like a piece of gold, something you want to keep for the rest of your life.”

When Salas got back to Manhattanville, he wanted to help his fellow soldiers overseas and approached then-College President Richard A. Berman with an idea. Together with Berman and administrator Anne Gold, they launched the My Soldier program on February 14, 2004.

Participants in the My Soldier program, who were not limited to Manhattanville students, sent letters and occasional care packages overseas to boost the quality of life for American troops.

A non-politically affiliated program, My Soldier was wildly successful, with participants from all 50 states and over 400,000 people in total, reaching more than 175,000 U.S. troops.
